Wear red lipstick in April to raise awareness about sexual violence and SPEAK OUT against victim-blaming!

What: Red My Lips is an international nonprofit organization. We run a month-long annual awareness campaign where supporters worldwide use red lipstick to raise awareness and funds.

When: April 1st - April 30th (Sexual Assault Awareness Month)

How: Wear red lipstick, temporary tattoos, or a creative alternative to create visibility, demonstrate solidarity and support for ALL survivors & speak out against rape myths and victim-blaming!
